Thousands celebrate Independence Day weekend at OLG Crab Fest

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church's 37th annual Crab Festival kicked the Independence Day celebrations off in style last Thursday, drawing thousands of participants over the three-day event despite some occasional heavy downpours.

"We're having a record day," Crab Fest volunteer Jerry West said Friday evening. "I was here last night and all day today. There's so many people. This is awesome! People love their seafood and everybody loves the Crab Fest!"

Some flood issues in Bay during storm could have been prevented, neighbors say

Tropical Storm Claudette caused flooding in several parts of Hancock County, but some Bay St. Louis residents told the city council last week they believe their own flooding was as much the result of poor drainage and inadequate building codes as it was the storm.

Rachel Dangermond, who owns the 100 Men Hall in the 300 block at Union Street, said last week that damage in her neighborhood during the storm could and should have been prevented.

"The hall did not flood, for a change," Dangermond said. "We were spared."

However, she said, some of her neighbors weren't so lucky.

"When I first moved into the hall, the land that was across from it was just a postage stamp and it drained into the ditch, and when it rained, that water would just stand there," Dangermond said. "When I had an event, patrons couldn't park there because it was just wetlands."

Tree of Life:

Live oak dedicated in memory of fallen officer

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The Bay Waveland Garden Club, Bay St. Louis City Council and the Hancock County Sheriff's Office last week unveiled a plaque dedicating a historic Live oak tree at the Depot grounds in honor of the late Lt. Michael Boutte.

Boutte, who served with the Hancock County Sheriff's Office, was killed in the line of duty on Feb. 1 after responding to a call in the Ne-caise Community.

"The tree continues to give life to so many of us," Anita Warner, the garden club member who spearheaded the effort to honor Boutte, said Friday. "It cleans the air. It provides shade. It's absolutely gorgeous."

Guests on hand for the presentation included Boutte's widow, Jennifer Boutte; Hancock County Sheriff Ricky Adam; Bay Councilman-at-Large Gary Knoblock; Ward 4 Councilman Kyle Lewis; Ward 2 Councilman Gene Hoffman; and Plaque for the Live oak tree honoring Lt. Michael Boutte.

Mayor Mike Favre.

Warner said she at first considered honoring Boutte by planting a tree, but then determined it would be more appropriate to dedicate an already historic tree in his memory.

While looking at the trees at the Depot, she said, Lonnie Falgout — executive director of the Alice Moseley Folk Art Museum inside the Depot building — helped her find the perfect tree and helped get the city council on board with the request.

"We were really pleased to work with these groups in honoring Michael Boutte in this long-lasting permanent tribute," Falgout said.

The Waveland Ground Zero Hurricane Museum on Friday celebrated the opening of the exhibit "Crossroads: Change in Rural America."

The exhibit is made possible through the Smithsonian's Museum on Main Street, in cooperation with the Mississippi Humanities Council.

"We are thrilled to be here tonight," museum board chair and project director Bernie Cullen said.

The effort to bring about the Smithsonian exhibit was started by the late LiLi Stahler-Murphy, who along with Basil Kennedy was instrumental in opening the doors of the hurricane museum.

"LiLi had a wonderful vision for the Smithsonian," Cullen said. "To actually be here and see her dream come true just means so much to me."

Mississippi Humanities Council Executive Director Stuart Rockoff said that Waveland was one of six sites in the state of Mississippi and the only site on the coast for the exhibit.

"How special to bring this exhibit here to Waveland," he said. "It's called the Main Street program. The idea behind it is that we

Hancock County Youth Court hosts 2021 Family Reunification Celebration

Hancock County Youth Court on Tuesday ended Reunification Month with a Family Reunification Celebration. CASA of Hancock County Executive Director Cynthia Chauvin defined reunification as the “restoration of unity to take place for a group of individuals, especially in a divided territory.” “So most people when they think of youth court, child welfare, they think of division. They think of an adversarial court system where parties fight it out and lawyers intervene and families are kind of at the middle ground of all it,” she said. According to the American Bar Association’s website, National Reunification Month, “recognizes the people and efforts around the country that help families to stay together.” Hancock County Youth Court staff attorney Kelly Creely said that when an issue develops in the home, Child Protective Services prepares the report and relays that information to Hancock County Judge Trent Favre. At that point, officials decide if the case can be resolved with the child remaining in the home. If it can’t be resolved in the home, the child is taken into custody, Creely said. Favre said Tuesday that one of the words that has been resonating with him lately is “connections.” “We do a good job, but we could always do better,” he said. “There’s just always so much more to learn about this. But, part of our learning comes from the connections we make from the families. I can read books and try to learn everything about what I need to do to be the best judge. But the real learning is on the job. It’s through this word, connection.” “It’s the connections that we make in the courtroom, it’s the connections we make outside the courtroom and it’s not just the connections of the families and the children, it’s the connections that you all make doing this work,” Favre said. “When we all work together and stay connected, we have a great product and that is a family that feels connected to us. We don’t want this ever to be a process where we shuffle them in and shuffle them out. We want them to feel like they are connected to us and we’re connected to them. And I can honestly say that you’re going to hear tonight about some these connections and I think you’ll understand exactly what I mean.” Lanie Roussel, attorney for parents in youth court, said her role is to guide her clients through the legal system. “But I tend to become their family,” she said. “Seeing them with their children today, it just reinforces the work that we do. There is a stigma involving this type of work and the clients we work with. I get all the time, ‘how do you do that?’ and ‘how do these parents choose to do that to their children?’ The simple answer is, it’s my job. But it’s more than that. Who I work with, their addiction is not who they are. They’re a person, a human being. And I have seen some incredible strength through these clients. In order to do this work, you have to have empathy. And we see that every day through CPS, through CASA, even the youth court staff. Everybody welcomes each parent with open arms and opportunities. When a reunification moment happens, it changes your life forever. You see the hard work that these parents go through, their sacrifices. Their entire lives are put out in front out of everybody else. Every single person in here as the judge always tells us has something going on. There’s something deeper. However, our lives aren’t portrayed in front of many people daily. So the strength, the bravery, the courage that it takes to get through this process, to keep showing up, to keep doing the hard work is admirable.”

This year, Roussel quoted from “Winnie the Pooh,” specifically a quote from the Eeyore character.

“Eeyore says, ‘A little consideration, a little thought for others makes all the difference,’” Roussel said. “And that’s what we’re here about. We have to spread the empathy through the community.”

For her previous, current, and future clients, Roussel said this, “Christopher Robin once said, ‘You’re braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think.’”

Two recently reunited parents spoke about their journey to getting their children back.

The first was mother of three, Heather LaFrance.

In the beginning, when her children were taken away, LaFrance said that she was “distraught thinking that CPS was against me and I completely went downhill fast. I lost myself, I was completely sidetracked and it got to the point where my kids were up for adoption.”

LaFrance’s mother and stepfather were named the children’s foster parents, she said. She said that her sister was also helping her parents.

“It got down to the point where I was in jail, and my CPS worker at the time was Jalisha, she showed up at the jail and said, ‘are you ready to sign your kids over?’” LaFrance said. “And at that point, I was like ‘no, I’m not,’ but I still hadn’t hit my rock bottom of where I was ready to get my kids back.”

One day, LaFrance said, she had a conversation with someone who had lost custody of their children.

“They had no option, but to not have a relationship with their kids and he told me ‘you’re out there and you can fight for your kids and you’re not. You’re just gonna let this happen?’” LaFrance said. “That was my eye opener. My mom had told me that I couldn’t contact her or my kids until I became the mother my kids could be proud of.”

LaFrance said she had a lot to prove. She said she was missing her court dates and not performing the judge-ordered tasks.

“When I got my last subpoena and it said ‘the whereabouts of the mother are unknown,’ that hit my heart,” she said. “My children and on paperwork, they don’t even know where I’m at, who I am, or anything.”

That’s when she decided to stop using drugs and even started drug testing herself.

“I got a job and showed up to my termination hearing,” LaFrance said. “I had a stack of paperwork with all clean drug screens, where I had been drug testing myself.”

LaFrance said she even showed evidence of where she had paid off her tickets and got her drivers license back.

“I told the judge I’m ready to fight for my kids,” she said. “I’m done with that. It’s over. I accepted everything.

Yeah, I was wrong. I was using drugs and I’m past that and I’m ready to get my kids back.”

She said that Judge Favre, as soon as he saw her, told her that he knew she had it in her.

“I never felt judged by him, but I was ready for when I walked into the courtroom to be judged,” she said. “That was my time where I had to be judged.”

On June 16, 2020, LaFrance gained custody of her children.

“And I was so nervous,” she said. “In court that day I was like, ‘I’m getting them back, what do I do?’” LaFrance said. “I was like a first time mother all over again. I was calling my mom and I said, ‘you’re just going to bring them to me and that’s it?’”

That first night back with her children, LaFrance said they all slept in the same bed.

“I thought there was going to have to be a whole us getting to know each other again, but as soon as I picked them up, that was it,” she said. “I’m so scared now. I know if I mess up, that’s it. There is no going back. There’s no doing this again. If I mess up, they will not be allowed in my life. I just constantly know that.”

LaFrance said she also “cut off” people and activities that she knew wouldn’t benefit her children.

“Now, I do own a business, I own two properties, I have my kids back and we’re doing great,” she said.

LaFrance said that when she’s feeling weak, she can turn to her children and put her attention on finding things for them to do together.

The next speaker was Amanda Simons, who said she was glad she was “actually capable of being here today.”

“A year ago, this wasn’t even remotely possible,” she said.

Simons said she is a 40-year-old mother of four.

“It’s funny that the word mother is thrown around loosely to mean someone who has borne a child,” Simons said. “A real mother is so much more than that. A real parent is so much more than that. When a person has a child, his or her instincts immediately scream protect and love this child with your life. That’s what normally happens. I however, suffered from the disease of addiction.”

When her daughter, Olivia was born, Simons said, those instincts were there, but “significantly dulled by the drugs that had taken over my very existence.”

“I was incapable of making proper decisions for my child and for that matter, myself,” she said. “Drugs had become my reason for living. And I do mean that literally.

Of course, I wasn’t inhuman. I was excited to have my baby, I loved her. I was thrilled to be a mother again, but as I said before, those feelings were dulled. They became secondary to what was of utmost importance and that was getting high at the time. When people say getting high, I think it gives people the impression that you are seeking some otherworldly state, a sensation to bring you out of the here and now. While that may be true at first, getting high in the end is literally just a way to get yourself out of bed.”

Simons said that withdrawals from opiates and heroin will make a person “wish they were dead.”

Aside from her daughter Olivia, Simons said she “didn’t have much.”

“I was living in a bedroom in Olivia’s grandparents house, constantly a burden to them and anyone else I encountered,” she said. “I also had a new baby, a human being that relied on me when I couldn’t rely on myself.”

Soon, Simons said that everything came “crashing down” around her and she hit “bottom’s bottom.”

“During this time I had to get my drugs somehow and Olivia was often with me,” she said. “It pains me now to say this, but as I’ve said, rationality had become the illusion and irrational had become my reality. I was incapable of seeing what I was doing was wrong. At the time, it just seemed normal. Looking back now, my actions shock and shame me.”

Simons said that when in the midst of addiction, one is incapable of conducting themselves like a “normal, productive member of society.”

“Everything that you do comes from a place that is so shifted from what is right that it can only be wrong,” she said. “The day everything fell apart, I woke up sick, which had become my norm by this time, and I had to get something. I don’t remember exactly how I got the money because, I’m sure you’ve guessed, I was incapable of getting or keeping a job at this point. I probably borrowed it under false pretenses, but I got it. And on the way back, I stopped at a store on my way home. Next thing I knew, I woke up and was surrounded by police. I went to jail at that point. Olivia was picked up by relatives. Less than 24 hours from the time I was bonded out, a police officer and a case worker came to remove Olivia from my care. I cannot express to you now what that was like. It was the most excruciating type of pain I’ve ever experienced. I had to hand my baby, regardless of everything I worshipped, over to complete strangers. I had to willingly and cooperatively go inside and pack her things to ultimately send her off to a place she didn’t know and worse yet, she didn’t. Every fiber of my being screamed for me to do something, anything to prevent this. But, I was powerless to change what was happening.”

Simons said that something inside of her broke that day, which she described as her bottom. She said that long before that point, one would think she would have “gotten it together.”

“But that is not how the disease of addiction works,” she said. “They don’t talk about the insanity of it, powerlessness of it, just use heavy terms,” she said. “I so wanted nothing more than to change and stop living the way I was.”

Simons said that she had to appear in youth court in an orange jumpsuit, shackles, and chains.

“Judge Trent Favre was presiding,” she said. “His words to me that day kept me going in so many hopeless moments. He said, ‘this may seem like the end, this may seem hopeless, but there is a way,’ and I held onto that.

Simons said that CPS became her “saving grace” after that.

“They paid for me to enter rehab that I so desperately needed, but more than that, they brought Olivia there to me,” she said. “I know that things would have not worked out how they did if I had had to spend 90 days wondering where she was and who she was with.”

Simons described rehab as a “life-changing process with the hopes of a real future.”

“I don’t want to give the impression that any of this was easy, it wasn’t,” she said. “It still isn’t. I must actively participate daily in my recovery. I still attend meetings and attend outpatient recovery called Ground Zero. I receive individual therapy, group therapy, and accountability by random drug testing. I’m so grateful to everyone who has played a part and still is in some way in my ability to get sober and stay that way.”

Simons said that she has been sober and has a job that she loves for more than a year now.

She graduated with honors and completed her associate’s degree in criminal justice. She now lives in a four-bedroom home with a backyard for her daughter and drives a new car.

“Sometimes it all seems so surreal,” she said. “How wonderful and shockingly different things are now. Olivia, James, and I are thriving. We have the support of family and a youth court that would not let us fail. We have been given the gift of watching our daughter grow and the joy of raising her.”

Learning with the nephew

The nephew is back in town so I immediately planned a little trip for just the two of us.

Since he's been visiting this summer, we've gone to the Mississippi Aquarium and the Mississippi Coast Model Railroad Museum in Gulfport.

The aquarium interested him a little. He was way more excited about the gift shop and the food than seeing the animals.

But the train museum was a different story. Since his birth, he has been intrigued by cars, trucks, trains, and more recently, Legos.

He absolutely loved watching the trains in action and getting to ride a train. We walked around the museum at least twice. There are more than 88 running model trains, four riding trains, and more than two million pieces of Legos.

Since I knew he was coming back for another visit, I Googled some other museums nearby that might interest him. That's how I found the Mississippi Aviation Heritage Museum on Pass Road in Gulfport.

According to its website, the museum was created by a "group of community leaders seeking to highlight the great adventures of John C. Robinson, the 'Brown Condor.' Robinson was the first African-American pilot to ever fight in combat in the Ethiopian War against Fascist Benito Mussolini in 1935 and 1936. In time, the museum dream grew to that of a place to not only honor Robinson, but those in the state of Mississippi whose influence had contributed significantly to the field of aviation."

Since I know the nephew loves airplanes, I planned the surprise outing.

Last Friday, we drove up to the 33,000 square foot facility in Gulfport and right away he noticed the large airplanes in the front window.

I could see and hear his excitement.

Since we were the only two visitors that morning, we were treated to a unique experience with volunteers Francisco and Todd.

The nephew is six so reading about the historical achievements of aviation is not on his priority list. But luckily, there are tons of hands-on activities for the kids.

There are several electronic games throughout where players can guide the airplane to the runway and matching games.

Francisco also helped him navigate his way through space on a spaceship.

He built a paper airplane with Todd.

Then came his most favorite activity, steering

Hancock History: Casino Magic

HANCOCK HISTORY
by James Keating
M.D.

Marlin Torguson was born in 1945 in Glenwood, Minnesota. He went to college at St. Cloud State in MN and majored in business. In 1966, he went into business with his father who ran a restaurant/bar and resort on Lake Minniewaska called Torgy's On The Lake. He married Barbara Unger in 1968, and they had two children. Torguson is a natural born entrepreneur and extended his business interests early in life. Over the next fifteen years, Torguson developed a marine shop, sports center, garbage pickup company, motorcycle franchise, wholesale liquor and wine distribution, another restaurant/bar in Spicer, MN, supper club in Litchfield, MN, and a package liquor store in Alexandria, MN. The original owner financed some of these new businesses. Torguson then paid off the debt over time from the profits of his growing, albeit small, local empire.

In 1984, Torguson expanded an Indian Reservation Casino and Bingo Hall, which he named Jackpot Junction. Gambling was made legal on Indian reservations in 1988. In 1989, Deadwood, South Dakota, passed a gaming law and Torguson converted a landmark building into the Gold Diggers Hotel and Casino which opened in 1991. Meanwhile, in 1990, the Mississippi Legislature passed the Mississippi Gaming Control Act to boost the state economy. Consequently, Torguson moved to the Gulf Coast and bought what is today the Chapel Hill property from Pete Fountain, a beloved jazz clarinetist from New Orleans, for $800,000. On June 5, 1990, Hancock County was the first county in Mississippi to pass gaming in a close contest with 4,246 votes for and 4,004 against. Torguson bankrolled and ran the referendum. An alternative, better "Bay Cove" site was found and chosen as the favorite spot for the casino which had a marina that was in Hancock County. The original land purchase for two hundred acres was for $12.5 M. Additional acreage was subsequently acquired for a total of 606 acres.

The original legislation authorized "cruise vessel gaming" but as different casino projects anticipated the impractical obstacles to cruising on the Mississippi River or the Gulf of Mexico, revised, more friendly statutes changed the requirement to "dock-side gambling." In any case, Torguson studied these statutes and determined that a vessel that is dock-side need not contain a motor or a steam engine. Indeed, his brilliant solution for a "seaworthy" vessel was a barge, not a steamboat.

A barge was built at Port Bienville and towed to Bay Cove. Casino Magic opened on September 30, 1992.

Torguson operated his casino differently than most of the other casino owners. Always thinking big, he constructed the largest entertainment tent in the region to house major events next to the casino. For example, Casino Magic hosted forty-two live boxing matches that were televised on ABC Wide World of Sports, the USA network, HBO, ESPN, Telemundo, and Pay Per View Tuesday nights. In 1994, a two hundred-unit hotel was built. In 1995, Arnold Palmer completed construction of an 18-hole golf championship course.

Torguson spent $30M to build the Casino Magic project in 1992. The venture was an unmitigated success because his business plan was to provide exceptional customer service, rather than limit his focus only on the amount of dividends his stockholders might receive each quarter from his publically traded company, Casino Magic. He imitated the example of his favorite role model, Steve Wynn, in the way Wynn operated his Las Vegas Casino.

The Mirage. Despite success in Bay St. Louis and additional casinos in Biloxi, Bossier City, two in Argentina, and two in Greece, in 1998 Torguson merged with Hollywood Park Race Track Inc. which soon thereafter changed its name to Pinnacle Entertainment, Inc.

The property's current owner, Penn National Gaming, operates 41 casinos. After Hurricane Katrina, the property was rebuilt and the name changed to Hollywood Casino. Pinnacle paid $380M for five of his casinos which included Casino Magic in that mega deal. Marlin Torguson retired in 2004 from Casino Magic and Pinnacle Entertainment and is living in Pass Christian.

In a forthcoming column, the interesting history of the second casino in Hancock County, the Silver Slipper Casino, will be presented.

jority Leader for many years? Sen. Byrd not only was a strong supporter of the Jim Crow laws forcing blacks to the back of the bus and, along with many Democrat colleagues, voted against all the '60's Civil Rights Acts but Byrd was actually a member of the Ku Klux Klan!

I wonder if Ms. Pelosi will also make us rename our airport? Former Mississippi Democrat Senator John C. Stennis also opposed the 60's Civil Rights Acts giving blacks and other minorities their equal rights. You suppose Ms. Pelosi is going to erase all "racist stains" or just selective ones that fit her political narrative?

an airplane for takeoff and then for a landing.

On his first try, he successfully landed his airplane. On my first try, I successfully crashed my airplane. Don’t worry, I won’t be signing up for aviation school anytime soon.

Even more than usual, I was super proud to be his aunt.

Both Todd and Francisco bragged about how smart he was, how attentive he was, and how quickly he learned what to do. They used the word, “intelligent” a lot.

Of course, I knew that already, but it still brought tears to my eyes to know that complete strangers see what I see.

He would have flown airplanes all day long if we had the time. But, I also told him that we would definitely come back.

I cannot thank Francisco and Todd enough for the fantastic tour and the dedicated attention they were able to pay to the nephew.

It was an awesome experience.

Now, I have to think of more ways to top that. I like taking him to museums, especially ones that feature hands-on activities for the kids. It gets them involved on an appropriate learning level.

I also hope that it will get him interested in learning about history. He already loves learning how things are made and how to “drive” things. One of his other newest hobbies is Mario Kart racing, which of course, as a video game lover myself, I’m happy about.

I can’t wait to see what we will explore next on our adventures. While I do miss the itty bitty baby years, I’m glad that he has reached an age where we can both learn about new things together.

ANA LAURA TORRES WEIDIE

Ana Laura Torres Weidie, age 82, left the home she loved full of memories in Pearlinton, Mississippi, and entered into eternal rest with the Lord on Tuesday, June 29, 2021. Born in Galeana, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, to Jose de Jesus Torres and Josefina Torres Melendez, with five loving sisters and a brother, she met and married the love of her life, Alfred E. Weidie Jr., from New Orleans, Louisiana, and together they began a family. Her life revolved around family, home, community and her deep devotion to her Catholic faith. Active for many years in her church, she assisted at daily mass and helped around the parish in so many ways. Her devotion to prayer was deep. Ana was constantly receiving phone calls from friends, acquaintances and even strangers, asking her for prayers. They took great comfort in her compassionate, loving words. She was active in many prayer groups and had a particularly strong devotion to Mary. Being a loving wife, mother and homemaker was her greatest joy. She loved food and was a wonderful cook. She loved her yard and gardens, pets and animals, nature and the outdoors, and she cherished having visitors-- her hospitality was gracious and generous. She loved to travel and share stories of the marvelous places she visited. She was a wonderful and loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister and aunt who will be greatly missed by her family and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband, Alfred E. NOTICE OF BOND SALE

$7,000,000
HANCOCK COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI
GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS, SERIES
2021

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Supervisors (the "Governing Body") of Hancock County, Mississippi (the "County") will receive sealed bids in the Office of the Chancery Clerk, located at 854 Highway 90, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, until the hour of 11:30 a.m. on Monday, July 19, 2021, and will be presented to the Governing Body at such time for the purchase at not less than par plus accrued interest to the date of delivery of $7,000,000 aggregate principal amount Hancock County, Mississippi General Obligation
Bonds, Series 2021 (the "Bonds").

The Bonds will be dated and bear interest from their date of delivery, will be delivered in definitive form as fully registered Bonds, will be in the denominations of $5,000 or any integral multiple thereof, will be payable as to principal at a bank or banks to be named by the County (the "Paying and Transfer Agent") and will bear interest, payable semiannually on February 1 and August 1 of each year, commencing on August 1, 2022, at the rate or rates of interest specified in the bid submitted by the successful bidder in accordance with this Notice of Bond Sale.

The Bonds will be issued in registered, book-entry-only form and all bidders for the Bonds must be participants of The Depository Trust Company, New York, New York ("DTC"), or affiliated with its participants. The Bond certificates will be deposited with DTC. DTC will be responsible for maintaining a book-entry system for recording the interests of its participants and for the transfer of the interests among its participants. The participants will be responsible for maintaining records regarding the beneficial ownership interests in the Bonds on behalf of the individual purchasers. Individual purchases may be made in the principal amount of $5,000 or any multiple thereof through book entries made on the books and records of DTC and its participants. Unless the book-entry-only system is discontinued, Bond principal and interest payments will be made by the County to DTC through the Paying and Transfer Agent. DTC will then be responsible for distributing such payments to DTC participants for subsequent remittance to the owners of beneficial interests in the Bonds. Payment of principal and interest on the Bonds to DTC is the responsibility of the County, disbursement of such payments to DTC participants shall be the responsibility of DTC, and disbursements of such payments to the owners of beneficial interests shall be the responsibility of DTC participants and not the responsibility of the County. The County will have no responsibility or obligation to DTC participants or owners of beneficial interests in the Bonds, with respect to the payment by DTC or any DTC participants, of the principal of or interest on the Bonds or the providing of notice to DTC participants or owners of beneficial interests in the Bonds or with respect to: (a) the accuracy of any records maintained by DTC or any DTC participant; or (b) any consent given or other action taken by DTC as owner of the Bonds.
The Bonds will mature on August 1 in the years and in the principal amounts shown below:

YEAR	AMOUNT
2022	$360,000
2023	370,000
2024	375,000

2026	395,000
2027	405,000
YEAR	AMOUNT
2028	$740,000
2029	760,000
2030	775,000
2031	795,000
2032	810,000
2033	830,000

Bonds maturing on August 1, 2028 and thereafter, are subject to redemption prior to their stated dates of maturity, at par, plus accrued interest to the date of redemption, either in whole or part, at any time on or after August 1, 2027.

The Bonds will be issued pursuant to the provisions of Sections 19-9-1 et seq., Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended from time to time (the "Act") and resolutions adopted or to be adopted by the Governing Body.
The Bonds are being issued to raise money for the purpose of providing funds for (a) constructing, reconstructing, and repairing roads, highways and bridges, and acquiring the necessary land, including land for road building materials, and acquiring rights-of-way therefor and the purchase of heavy construction equipment and accessories thereto reasonably required to construct, repair and renovate roads, highways and bridges and approaches thereto
within the County, (b) purchasing machinery and equipment which have an expected useful life in excess of ten (10) years, (c) purchasing or erecting, equipping, repairing, reconstructing, remodeling and enlarging County buildings, courthouses and related facilities and the purchase of land therefor, and (d) for other authorized purposes under the Act, including paying the costs of borrowing (together (a) through (d) are referred to herein as the "Project").
The Bonds shall be general obligations of the County and the full faith, credit and taxing power of the County shall be pledged to secure the payment of the principal of and interest on the Bonds. The County's tax levy for any year shall be abated pro tanto to the extent the County on or prior to September 1 of that year has transferred monies to the 2021 Bond Fund for the Bonds, or has made other provisions for funds to be applied toward the payment of the principal of and interest on the Bonds due during the ensuing fiscal year of the County, in accordance with the provisions of the Bond Resolution.
The Bonds are to be sold at not less than $7,000,000 aggregate par plus interest on the Bonds accrued to the date of delivery, and are to be awarded to the bidder complying with the terms hereof and offering to purchase all of the Bonds at the lowest net interest cost to the County. The net interest cost will be determined by computing the aggregate interest on the Bonds over the life of the issue at the rate or rates of interest specified by the bidder, less premium offered, if any. It is requested that each bid be accompanied by a statement of the net interest cost (computed to six decimal places), but such statement will not be considered a part of the bid. No Bond shall bear more than one (1) rate of interest;
each Bond shall bear interest from its date to its stated maturity date at the interest rate specified in the bid; all Bonds of the same maturity shall bear the same rate of interest from their date to maturity; the lowest rate of interest specified for any of the Bonds shall not be less than seventy percent (70%) of the highest rate of interest specified for any of the Bonds; and the highest rate of interest specified for any of the Bonds shall not exceed eleven percent (11%) per annum. Each interest rate specified in any bid must be a multiple of one-eighth of one percent (1/8 of 1%) or a multiple of one-tenth of one percent (1/10 of 1%) and a zero rate of interest cannot be named.

The County will designate the Bonds as qualified tax-exempt obligations within the meaning and for the purposes of Section 265(b)(3) of the Code.
Bidders must acknowledge in their respective bids that they have received and reviewed the County's preliminary official statement in connection with the issuance of the Bonds (the "Preliminary Official Statement"). The County deems the Preliminary Official Statement to be "final" as described in SEC Rule 15c2-12(b)(1) for the purposes of such Rule. Upon award of the Bonds to the successful bidder, the County will prepare a final official statement in connection with the Bonds (the "Official Statement") in substantially the form of the Preliminary Official Statement, subject to minor amendments and supplementations. A reasonably sufficient number of Official Statements will be made available to the successful bidder at the expense of the County within seven (7) business days of the award of the Bonds to such bidder. Copies of the Preliminary Official Statement may be obtained from Eddie Favre, County
Administrator, 854 Highway 90, Bay St. Louis,
Mississippi, telephone:
(228) 466-4736 and the County's municipal advisor (the "Municipal Advisor"), Government Consultants, Inc., 116 Village Boulevard, Madison, Mississippi 39110, telephone: (601) 982-0005, attention: Mr.
Steve Pittman.

In order to assist bidders in complying with SEC Rule 15c2-12(b)(5), the County, pursuant to a resolution of the Governing Body and a Continuing Disclosure Certificate, will agree to provide annual reports and notices of certain events. A summary of the County's procedures with regard to continuing disclosure is set forth in the Preliminary Official Statement and will also be set forth in the Official Statement.
All bids must be enclosed in a sealed envelope, should be addressed to the Governing Body, should be filed with the Governing Body of the County in the Office of the Chancery Clerk, located at 854 Highway 90,
Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, attention: Tim Kellar, Chancery Clerk, and worded on the outside, in substance, "Bid for Hancock County, Mississippi General Obligation
Bonds, Series 2021." ALL BIDS MUST BE UNCONDITIONAL AND, AS A CONDI-TION PRECEDENT TO THE CONSIDER-

ATION OF ITS BID, EACH BIDDER MUST ENCLOSE WITH IT, AS A GOOD FAITH
DEPOSIT, A CERTIFIED OR CASHIER'S CHECK ISSUED OR CERTIFIED BY A BANK LOCATED WITH-IN THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI PAYABLE TO THE ORDER OF
HANCOCK COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI FOR $140,000.00. No interest will be allowed on any good faith deposit. Bids will be accepted or rejected by the Governing Body on the date above shown for the sale of the Bonds.
When a bid is rejected by the Governing Body, the good faith deposit accompanying said bid will be returned to the bidder. When a bid is accepted by the Governing Body, the good faith deposit accompanying said bid will be applied as part payment for the Bonds or, if the successful bidder fails to comply with this agreement to purchase the Bonds, will be retained as liquidated damages. Pending the application of the good faith deposit of the successful bidder as aforesaid, such deposit may be invested in direct obligations of, or obligations guaranteed by the United States of America or in repurchase agreements with banks fully secured by such obligations, and the County shall be entitled to any income from any such investment.
The Governing Body reserves the right to reject any or all bids as well as the right to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid. All bids shall be submitted on the Official Bid Form which may be obtained from Eddie Favre, County Administrator, 854 Highway 90, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, telephone:
(228) 466-4736 and the County's Municipal Advisor, Government Consultants, Inc., 116
Village Boulevard, Madison,
Mississippi 39110, telephone:
(601) 982-0005, attention: Mr. Steve Pittman.
In the opinion of Butler Snow LLP ("Bond Counsel"), assuming compliance by the County with certain tax covenants, under existing statutes, regulations, rulings and court decisions, interest on the Bonds is excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes, and interest on the Bonds is not an item of tax preference for purposes of the federal alternative minimum tax. Bond Counsel will express no other opinion regarding other federal tax consequences resulting from the ownership, receipt or accrual of interest on or disposition of the Bonds. In addition, Bond Counsel is further of the opinion that under and pursuant to the Act, the Bonds and interest thereon are exempt from income taxation in the State of Mississippi.

The final approving opinion of Bond Counsel, relating to the validity and tax exemption of the Bonds, dated the date of delivery of the Bonds, and a transcript of the proceedings relating to the Bonds will be delivered to the successful bidder without charge.

It is anticipated that CUSIP identification numbers will be secured and printed on the Bonds, but neither the failure to secure or print such numbers on any Bond nor any error with respect thereto shall constitute cause for failure or refusal by the successful bidder to accept delivery of and pay for the Bonds in accordance with its agreement to purchase the Bonds. All expenses in relation to the printing of CUSIP numbers on the Bonds shall be paid for by the County;
provided, however, that the CUSIP Global Services charge for the assignment of said numbers shall be paid for by the successful bidder.
The successful bidder will be given at least seven (7) business days advanced notice of the proposed date of delivery of the Bonds when that date has been tentatively determined. It is expected that the Bonds will be delivered in New York, New York and payment therefor shall be made in federal or other immediately available funds.
At or before 11:30 a.m. on Monday, July 19, 2021, the winning bidder for the Bonds must provide to the County Administrator and Municipal Advisor the initial offering prices
to the public.

The winning bidder shall assist the County in establishing the issue price of the Bonds for federal income tax purposes and shall execute and deliver to the County at Closing an "issue price" or similar certificate setting forth the reasonably expected initial offering price to the public or the sales price or prices of the Bonds, together with the supporting pricing wires or equivalent communications, substantially in the form as may be appropriate or necessary, in the reasonable judgment of the winning bidder, the County and Bond Counsel. All actions to be taken by the County under this Notice of Public Sale to establish the issue price of the Bonds may be taken on behalf of the County by the County's Municipal Advisor and any notice or report to be provided to the County may be provided to the County's Municipal Advisor.
The County intends that the provisions of Treasury Regulation Section 1.148-1(f)(3)
(i) (defining "competitive sale" for purposes of establishing the issue price of the Bonds) will apply to the initial sale of the Bonds (the "competitive sale requirements") because:

- (1) the County will disseminate this Notice of Public Sale to potential underwriters in a manner that is reasonably designed to reach potential underwriters;
- (2) all bidders will have an equal opportunity to bid;
- (3) the County may receive bids from at least three underwriters of municipal bonds who have established industry reputations for underwriting new issuances of municipal bonds; and
- (4) the County anticipates awarding the sale of the Bonds to the bidder who submits a firm offer to purchase the Bonds at the highest price (or lowest interest cost), as set forth in this Notice of Public Sale.
Any bid submitted pursuant to this Notice of Public Sale shall be considered a firm offer for the purchase of the Bonds, as specified in the bid and in this Notice of Public Sale and shall not be subject to any conditions or qualifications except as permitted by this Notice of Public Sale. By submitting a bid, each bidder confirms that it has an established industry reputation for underwriting new issuances of municipal obligations.

In the event that the competitive sale requirements are not satisfied, the County shall so advise the winning bidder. The County shall treat the first price at which 10% of a maturity of the Bonds (the "10% test") is sold to the public as the issue price of that maturity, applied on a maturity-by-maturity basis (and if different interest rates apply within a maturity, to each separate CUSIP number within that maturity). The winning bidder shall advise the County if any maturity of the Bonds satisfies the 10% test as of the date and time of the award of the Bonds. The County will not require bidders to comply with the "hold-the-offering-price rule" and therefore does not intend to use the initial offering price to the public as of the sale date of any maturity of the Bonds as the issue price of that maturity. Bids will not be subject to cancellation in the event that the competitive sale requirements are not satisfied. Bidders should prepare their bids on the assumption that all of the maturities of the Bonds will be subject to the 10% test in order to establish the issue price of the Bonds.
If the competitive sale requirements are not satisfied, then until the 10% test has been satisfied as to each maturity of the Bonds, the winning bidder agrees to promptly report to the County the prices at which the unsold Bonds of that maturity have been sold to the public. That reporting obligation shall continue, whether or not the Closing Date has occurred, until the 10% test has been satisfied as to the Bonds of that maturity or until all Bonds of that maturity have been sold.
By submitting a bid, each bidder confirms that: (i) any agreement among underwriters, any selling group agreement and each retail distribution agreement (to which the bidder is a party) relating to the initial sale of the Bonds to the public, together with the
related pricing wires, contains or will contain language obligating each underwriter, each dealer who is a member of the selling group, and each broker-dealer that is a party to such retail distribution agreement, as applicable, to report the prices at which it sells to the public the unsold Bonds of each maturity allotted to it until it is notified by the winning bidder that either the 10% test has been satisfied as to the Bonds of that maturity or all Bonds of that maturity have been sold to the public, if and for so long as directed by the winning bidder and as set forth in the related pricing wires, and (ii) any agreement among underwriters relating to the initial sale of the Bonds to the public, together with the
related pricing wires, contains or will contain

language obligating each underwriter that is a party to a retail distribution agreement to be employed in connection with the initial sale of the Bonds to the public to require each broker-dealer that is a party to such retail distribution agreement to report the prices at which it sells to the public the unsold Bonds of each maturity allotted to it until it is notified by the winning bidder or such underwriter that either the 10% test has been satisfied as to the Bonds of that maturity or all Bonds of that maturity have been sold to the public, if and for so long as directed by the winning bidder or such underwriter and as set forth in the related pricing wires.
Sales of any Bonds to any person that is a related party to an underwriter shall not constitute sales to the public for purposes of this Notice of Public Sale. Further, for purposes of this Notice of Public Sale:
(i) "public" means any person other than an underwriter or a related party.
(ii) "underwriter" means (A) any person that agrees pursuant to a written contract with the County (or with the lead underwriter to form an underwriting syndicate) to participate in the initial sale of the Bonds to the public and (B) any person that agrees pursuant to a written contract directly or indirectly with a person described in clause (A) to participate in the initial sale of the Bonds to the public (including a member of a selling group or a party to a retail distribution agreement participating in the initial sale of the Bonds
to the public),
(iii) a purchaser of any of the Bonds is a "related party" to an underwriter if the underwriter and the purchaser are subject, directly or indirectly, to (i) at least 50% common ownership of the voting power or the total value of their stock, if both entities are corporations (including direct ownership by one corporation of another), (ii) more than 50% common ownership of their capital interests or profits interests, if both entities are partnerships (including direct ownership by one partnership of another), or (iii) more than 50% common ownership of the value of the outstanding stock of the corporation or the capital interests or profit interests of the partnership, as applicable, if one entity is a corporation and the other entity is a partnership (including direct ownership of the applicable stock or interests by one entity of the other), and
(iv) "sale date" means the date that the Bonds are awarded by the County to the winning bidder.

The successful bidder shall have the right, at its option, to cancel its agreement to purchase the Bonds if the Bonds to be delivered by the County in accordance with the preceding paragraph are not tendered for delivery within sixty (60) days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event the County shall return to said bidder its good faith deposit without interest. The County shall have the right, at its option, to cancel its agreement to sell the Bonds if within five (5) days after the tender of the Bonds for delivery the successful bidder shall not have accepted delivery of and paid for the Bonds, and in such event the County shall retain the successful bidder's good faith deposit as liquidated damages.

The Krewe of Diamondhead Kicks Off New Season

SEA COAST ECHO

The Krewe of Diamondhead held their annual membership meeting on June 5th at the Lazy Gator Sports Bar and Steamer in Diamondhead, MS. The members enjoyed the chance to hear reports from the board, visit with other members and discuss the upcoming season and enjoy a fantastic taco bar. The Krewe recognized all members that volunteered their time for each event. Without their help we would not have had a successful season. Although this season was not like a “normal” one, the Krewe still held its balls, parties and crowned Ali’I Honua the 46th, Kevin Parrington and his Queen, Sarah Shafer-Parrington. They have served the Krewe in an outstanding fashion and will continue to do so until the Coronation Ball on December 11, 2021. The next event for the Krewe will be the Theme Party, which will be held on August 21, 2021 in the Emerald Ball Room at the Diamondhead Country Club. The theme will be The Boston Tea Party and the Krewe will party like its 1773. Members will have the chance to dressing in period fashion or honor the theme how they see fit. This part will be one to remember so be sure to mark your calendars and don’t miss out on the fun. The Krewe has many events planned for this upcoming season that are only opened to members of the Krewe. If you have thought about joining but would like

MEET BENNETT.

Talk about having it all! This boy has stunning good looks and smarts. (He has a stellar personality as well.) He has made many friends, both canine and human, during the short time been with us. This 2 year old Pointer/Labrador Retriever mix has impressed our staff and volunteers with his gentlemanly manners and sweet disposition towards all. However, Bennett is very energetic, and loves to play, so a "couch potato" he is not! Bennett sits on command, and will "shake" your hand upon introduction. He walks great on a leash and harness, and we feel he is house trained, as he keeps his kennel very clean. Because he is an active breed mix, a home with a fenced backyard would be ideal for Bennett. He could join any family dynamic and be a treasured addition, whether it be as a best buddy to a single person or couple, or a trusted family pet. Like we said...Bennett has it ALL! If you are interested in giving Bennett the happy life that he deserves, call our front desk at 228-466-4516 (Mon-Fri 10am-4pm) to arrange a meet and greet. Please bring your dog(s) and children along for the visit to ensure compatibility.

help bring Smithsonian exhibits to all the communities. When it works well, those communities all pull together. They strengthen and they work to make it happen. Because we don't just give you the exhibit, we ask you and encourage you to do your own local exhibit. This is a national exhibit, but what is Waveland's story? How does Waveland's story connect to the themes of the exhibit?"

Rockoff said that Waveland's effort will become the story he uses to describe the impact of the program.

This is the eighth Smithsonian exhibit that has been brought to Mississippi in the past few years, he said.

"The point is to bring Smithsonian quality exhibits to small towns across Mississippi and across America to help understand some of the broad important historical changes that have shaped our state and our country," he said. "This is about rural America. Its thriving and some of the struggles they have faced. And how it has shown resilience with those struggles. How better a place to show resilience than Waveland, Mississippi and on Coleman Avenue? So yes, you got selected, but it was not a hard choice."

The MHC is an independent non-profit organization and the state affiliate for the National Endowment for the Humanities, which is a federal agency that supports public humanities programs, Rockoff said.

Most of the MHC funding comes from the NEH as well as grants, foundations, corporations, and individuals, he added.

"What we do with that money is we support a wide range of public humanities programs throughout the state," he said. "Our mission is to create opportunities for Mississippians to learn about themselves in a larger world and enrich communities through civil conversations about our history and culture."

Learn more about MHC at mshumanities.org.

The museum board presented LiLi's husband Donald Murphy with the Category 5 award, crafted by Donna Martin, who is also a museum board member, of DragonFire Glass Studio in Waveland.

"It is my extreme pleasure to present this to you for your generosity, for your continued support of the museum, and for all your love and dedication," Martin said.

After Friday's ribbon cutting, 65 guests viewed the Smithsonian exhibit, Cullen said. On Saturday, the first day it was open to the public, Cullen said, 29 visitors stopped in.

The Smithsonian's portable multi-kiosk exhibit also features panels that include interactive tools for children, Cullen said.

In addition, Waveland Ground Zero Museum has created 10 new displays featuring Hancock County's history, "From Logtown to INFINITY."

The panels will highlight Bay St. Louis, Clermont Harbor, Diamondhead, Kiln, Pearlinton, and Waveland with four specific themes: Historical markers; Crossing the Bay of St. Louis; Stennis: Hancock County Welcomes the Space Program; and African-American influences in Hancock County, Cullen said.

Cullen said Friday that 27 members of the community have volunteered to be museum docents as well as five student docents.

During the exhibition's stay, which is from July 3 to Aug. 14, there will also be a series of lectures:

July 14: "Port and Harbor: An asset to Hancock County" by William Cotter, CEO. The Port & Harbor serves as an influential economic engine for Hancock County. Mr. Cotter will

Since that time, she said, four houses have been built on that property.

“When they went to build that first house and they laid a concrete foundation and a concrete driveway,” Dangermond said, she knew it was a mistake. “It was already a drainage area. But the contractor and the city, they said it’s up to code. Then they built a second house, and of course the water starts backing up into the street. By the time they built the third house, the street is always flooded every time it rains.”

Adding to the problem, she said, “The city hasn’t cleaned out the ditch in at least eight months. This time, all the culverts were slow and (the water) started backing up at the back of the houses.”

Then, she said, “the city came and dug a swale on my property. I wrote to the city at the time that that doesn’t make any sense. The water doesn’t come this way, it goes (the other) way. That’s just plum stupid.

“This is an infrastructure problem and it’s also a hydrology problem caused by the city code. ... There’s not a permeable surface in sight, no French drains, nothing.”

Dangermond said that when the water from Claudette started flooding the houses across from her property, “the wood floors popped off like Lee Press-On nails.”

Bay St. Louis Mayor Mike Favre acknowledged Tuesday that the city has a number of drainage issues to work on.

“We have a lot of areas we’ve targeted and have started to work on,” Favre said. “We’re working with FEMA and trying to get funding through them. We met with them last week and we’re very optimistic that they’re going to be able to help us out. We’ve got our people working on our problem areas. We’re working on an overall drainage plan, and we’re going to get our main drains taken care of. We’re out there working in the troubled area first. Overall, the plan is to go through all our drainage, to correct and shore up main drainage areas, washed-up box culverts and everything.”

Favre said a major hurdle the city has been facing is that there’s a lot of area to cover with too few employees and too little equipment.

“We’ve told everybody before, we don’t have the equipment or the manpower to go in and clean everything we need to in a timely manner,” Favre said. “We’ve got two trackhoes, a backhoe and four or five people, and that’s what we’ve got to take care of 250 miles of drainage ditches.

“That’s why we’re working with FEMA and trying to come up with an overall plan. The sooner we can get that okayed, we’ll move forward and get some contractors in here to help us.”

Favre said the city will be working in conjunction with the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, which has contracted with Waggoner Engineering on a comprehensive watershed-based storm water program. Much of that project was funded through funds from the Gulf of Mexico Energy Security Act (GOMESA).

The county-wide study was designed to identify the county’s watershed issues and help engineer ways to solve them.

If you experienced flooding to your primary dwelling during Tropical Storm Claudette, please report it to the Hancock County Emergency Management Agency by calling 228-255-0942. If you have insurance, please report issues to your insurance provider in addition to reporting to the Hancock County EMA.

the rest of their boiled shrimp booth volunteers from the 2019 Crab Fest, along with the phrase “Live Like Cayce.” This year’s booth was dedicated to Seal, a Bay St. Louis native and Entergy lineman who died last month after a tragic electrical accident.

“We really miss Cayce,” West said. “He was such a good guy, a good man.”

A sign posted at the entrance to the fest also showed Seal’s photo, with the inscription: “In Memory of Cayce Seal. Thank you for your dedicated years of volunteering at OLG Crab Fest.”

Crab Fest is OLG’s biggest fund raiser each year, raising thousands of dollars for its many outreach programs. Each year, thousands of people from all over the Gulf South come to feast on fresh seafood, enjoy carnival rides and listen to live music from entertainers such as the Chee Weez, Monsters at Large, Shea Michaels, JC & the Baytown Groove and Cat 6.

return for the festival, which was canceled last year due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

“Thank you everyone for your support!” The Crab Fest committee posted on its Facebook page. “It was a great time!

Committee chair James “Jimmy” Osbourn said he has been on the Crab Fest Committee for the past 30 years, but this is his first year as chairman for the event.

“We’ve got four major sponsors, Silver Slipper Casino Hotel, Mitchell Distributing—the Budweiser people, United Coca-Cola and Direct Auto Sales right out there on Hwy. 603, and we really want to thank them,” Osbourn said.

“I’d like to also say thanks to all the others who have donated and helped with this year’s Crab Fest.”

Who is my neighbor?

One of the best known texts in scripture is what we know as the parable of The Good Samaritan. It begins with a question from a lawyer who asks how to inherit eternal life. Jesus refers him to the law, and the lawyer quoted it perfectly. “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.”

Jesus commended him for answering correctly and pointed out that if he would do this he would live.

We could just stop with that. There is enough in that conversation to hold our thinking well into the future. However, the lawyer persists (as good lawyers do) by asking, somewhat uncomfortably, who might be his neighbor. That question leads to the parable.

A man was traveling down a road, and he fell among robbers. They beat him, stole his belongings, and left him for dead by the roadside. A priest came by. He saw the man, but being busy with spiritual responsibilities he passed on the other side of the road. Also a Levite came that way. He saw the wounded man, but he did not render aid. Eventually a Samaritan, who by the standards of Jesus’ questioner would be a less than honorable person, came along the road. Rather than pass him by he stopped to help. He bound up his wounds. He sat him on his own beast and took him to the next town. He placed him in an inn, paid for his care, and he promised that if more was needed he would pay for it when he returned. Jesus asked, “Now who do you think was the neighbor in that situation?” The lawyer answered that it was the one who showed mercy. Jesus said simply, “Go, and do likewise.”

Of course there is much to ponder in this little story. In the first place there is no mention of the religious affiliation of the Samaritan, or even if he had one. His acts of neighborly kindness came from his heart not from his membership or lack thereof in any organized religion. Please do not misunderstand this point. Jesus is not condemning religion here, but he is making it clear that religion which lacks signs of love and care is an empty vessel.

For most of us there are also deeper meanings. We are all subject to being wounded. Vulnerability is a part of the human condition. We can all get knocked into the ditch. This is true in more than a literal sense. We can experience tragedies of many kinds which leave us wounded and in need of rescue.

Sadly, we can also all be among those who wound. Honestly, most of us do not intend to. We can simply get caught up in our own busyness to the point that we just do not see or make time for tending the hurt that is around us.

It has been reported that if a line were to be formed of all the people on earth who experience daily food insecurity it would reach around the world six and a half times. Most of us miss that, and we go on with our busy lives.

Thankfully, we can also be helpful and caring people.

The same person who can be wounded or inflict wounds, as well as those who think they are too busy can also offer love and kindness.

Most of us are probably in both camps. One of the main purposes of the spiritual life is to teach us to be good neighbors. This is the noble goal of the church. As Jesus said, “Do this and you shall live.”

United Way of South Mississippi Announces 2021-2023 Grant Recipients

SEA COAST ECHO

United Way of South Mississippi has awarded 12 Community Impact grants during a presentation ceremony at the Knight Nonprofit Center in Gulfport on Friday, June 25.

The ceremony marked the beginning of UWSM's 2021-2023 grant cycle. Over the course of the two-year cycle, $448,000 in grant funding will be provided to 12 area nonprofits working in the sectors of education, health and financial stability.

Community Impact Grant Recipients were selected through an extensive application and review process that identified the greatest overall community impact. The grants will directly affect UWSM's service area of Hancock, Harrison, Pearl River and Stone Counties.

The grant recipients and their funded programs include:

- Boys & Girls Club of the Gulf Coast—Project Learn, which offers educational enhancement programs for economically disadvantaged students in Pre-K through the third grade;
- CASA of Hancock County—Educational Advocacy & Child Well-Being Program, which connects more services to child victims and provides education to caregivers;
- CASA of Harrison County—Educational Advocacy & Support

Initiative, which seeks to equip participants with the skills necessary to encourage learning for vulnerable children in the classroom;

- Catholic Charities of South Mississippi—Case Management Services, which will provide case management and community outreach services for individuals seeking assistance;
- Disability Connection—Family Resource Guide, which provides families fresh, updated information on community resources in a readily assessable format;
- Gulf Coast Center for Nonviolence—Children's Program, which helps children who have been exposed to violence achieve developmental milestones in school readiness;
- Hancock Human Resource Agency—Early Childhood Program, which provides childcare and early childhood learning services to children of families with low income;
- Hancock Resource Center—Navigator Program, which works with the Hancock County Youth Court and related agencies to provide case management for families in crisis;
- Manna Ministries—Head & Heart Program, which provides students who struggle with reading in grades 1-3 with additional grade-level reading resources;
- Moore Community House—Early Head Start Program, which provides early childhood learning services to at-risk children and families;

- The Nourishing Place—ENHANCE After School Tutoring Program, which offers group tutoring and transportation services to at-risk students;
- St. Vincent de Paul Community Pharmacy—Diabetic Care Program, which provides insulin, diabetes education and materials for clients.

The grants are made possible through workplace giving campaigns, which generate individual and corporate gifts for UWSM.

“These grants affirm United Way of South Mississippi's commitment to Academic Success, Health and Wellness and Financial Stability—all which lead to Family Stability within the four countries we serve, Hancock, Harrison, Pearl River and Stone,” said CEO, Kathy Springer. “United Way of South Mississippi is proud to partner with the grant recipients in making a difference in our communities.”

United Way of South Mississippi, established in 1992, fights for measurable and lasting improvements in the education, financial stability and health of all people in Hancock, Harrison, Pearl River and Stone Counties. Working with community partners and funded by generous donors, the organization identifies critical community needs and then works to secure resources and provide coordinated support for local nonprofit partners working to address those needs.
